1. [REDACTED] Received a call from Mrs. Wallace, in the office of Representative Barber Conable (R., N.Y.), who requested application forms and brochures for one of their constituents. Forms were sent out.

2. [REDACTED] Talked to Robert Boyer, House Foreign Affairs Committee staff, who told me that Representatives Louis Frey (R., Fla.) and James Hastings (R., N.Y.) with staff assistant Ed Wren are not travelling for Foreign Affairs Committee since they are on Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee. He assumes that that Committee is the sponsor but he does not know. He told me also that Representatives Murphy (D., Ill.) and Steele (R., Conn.) and Jack Brady, of Foreign Affairs Committee staff, will be returning today. He noted that travel by Representative Lester Wolff (D., N.Y.) is not under sponsorship of the Committee; it is at Wolff's personal expense and he understands that there has been some encouragement from the White House Committee in an attempt to bring Wolff into the fold.
